

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 12, 2006

For more information, contact:
David Mickenberg at 658-6951 or david@mickdunn.com

DAVID MICKENBERG IS NEW ASSOCIATE AT MICKENBERG, DUNN, KOCHMAN, LACHS & SMITH

BURLINGTON, VT - David Mickenberg is the newest associate at Mickenberg, Dunn, Kochman, Lachs and Smith, PLC. His practice will concentrate on government relations, public affairs, domestic relations and civil litigation.

For the past year, David Mickenberg served as a Dorot Fellow in Washington, D.C. at the Alliance for Justice, working on research and advocacy related to Presidential appointees to the federal judiciary, including three Supreme Court nominations. He graduated in 2005 from CUNY School of Law, where he worked in the International Women's Human Rights clinic and was the founder and president of the CUNY chapter of the American Constitution Society.

Prior to law school, Mr. Mickenberg spent six years at two programs started by George Soros' Open Society Institute, working on policy, communications and government relations. While in law school he worked as a Law Clerk on the Senate Judiciary Committee, for the committee's Ranking Member Senator Patrick Leahy, and as a judicial intern for Judge William K. Sessions, Chief Judge of the District Court of Vermont. He graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Madison where he majored in Political Science and English. He is admitted to practice in New York State and will be admitted in Vermont upon completion of his clerkship.

Mickenberg, Dunn, Kochman, Lachs and Smith is a six-attorney firm based in Burlington, Vermont, that practices general law and represents private clients, non-profit agencies, unions, and civil rights organizations. David Mickenberg joins his father, Neil Mickenberg who helped found the firm in 1981.